Breathtaking View, but a very long Bus ride

Took the Grand Canyon South Rim bus tour from Las Vegas. Can't say enough about the Canyon. The view was breathtaking and has to be seen to be believed. It's something I recommend everyone see at least once in their lives. However, I would suggest you take either the West Rim tour, a helicopter or a small plane tour. Had no problem with the bus ride. The bus was comfortable, clean, restroom ecquipped and the driver very friendly, courteous and knowledgeable. He did his best to insure we enjoyed the trip, but it is a very long ride (5 to 5 1/2 hours one way) and makes for a long day. The West rim is much closer and needless to say the helicopter or small plane tours are a lot faster. However, if you don't mind the bus ride, the tour is worth every penny.
